

Apply now for Biol 111G (now Biol 2610G) and Biol 211G (now Biol 2110G) Spring 2021 BioCat positions!

What BioCats do:

- Help other students
- Consolidate their own knowledge of biology
- Participate as members of the instructional team
- Strengthen their communication skills
- Demonstrate their leadership skills

Responsibilities:

- 10 hrs/week (paid)
- Keep up with asynchronous lectures
- Hold Zoom office hours
- Respond to student e-mails
- Monitor course discussion boards (Biol 2110G)
- Facilitate synchronous workshops (Biol 2610G)
- Participate in weekly team prep meetings

Weekly Team Prep Meetings

Biol 2610G Prep Meetings

- Mondays 4:30-6:00 pm

Biol 2110G Prep Meetings

- Thursdays 5:00-5:45 pm

Applications available on the Biology Department Website, or from Dr. Shuster (mshuster@nmsu.edu) or Dr. James (avis@nmsu.edu)

Applications due by 5:00 pm on December 4th